Re: Dissertation Draft (Chapters 1-3)

Dear [redacted]

This letter is in response to your request of August 31, 2012, for review of the above referenced dissertation for publication pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-001-RMD).

Your submission was reviewed pursuant to the terms of the PRP and we concluded that none of the information presented falls within a restricted area of disclosure. Therefore, there is no objection to the publication of your dissertation, as presented. However, we do ask when the final version of your dissertation is completed, please submit it for Prepublication Review.

You may include your FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information. In addition, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the dissertation are yours and not those of the FBI.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact [redacted] at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at [redacted]. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Good afternoon [redacted]

Attached is my dissertation draft for prepublication review. I would like to have this reviewed quickly in an effort to submit to my mentor and then IRB review. There are approximately 55 pages for review. Each time the words FBI or Federal Bureau of Investigation are used, they are highlighted in pink (I like pink). The shades of red and gray are notes to myself.

Please keep in mind this has not been seen by an editor, etc.
